JOHN E. FETZER

John E. Fetzer again demonstrated his devotion to baseball in the manner in which he sold the Tigers to Thomas S. Monaghan on Oct 10, 1983.

Under conditions of the sale, Fetzer agreed to remain as chairman of the three-man board of directors for at least two years. Monaghan serves as vice-chairman with President and Chief Executive Officer Jim Campbell serving as the third member.

Until the sale, Fetzer was sole owner of the club since November, 1961, and part owner for five years before that. Fetzer is a self-made man who parlayed radio pioneering into a fortune but never lost his youthful love for baseball.

As a result of his dual interests, Fetzer is recognized as one of baseball's true statesmen and the leading authority on the game's television broadcasting operations. He has been instrumental in pushing baseball's TV income to levels once believed beyond reach.

Yet his No. 1 love remained the Tigers.

A key figure in the three-group syndicate which purchased the Tigers from the W.O. Briggs Sr. estate for $5,500,00 in 1956, Fetzer gained two-third control in 1960 and 15 months later bought up the remaining shares to give the Tigers their first one-man ownership since Briggs' death in 1952.

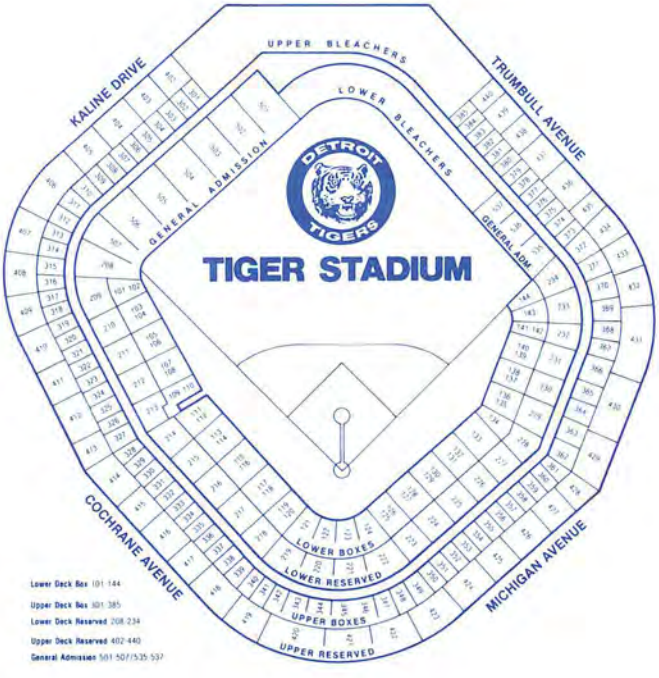
Born at Decatur, IN, March 25, 1901, Fetzer attended high school at West Lafayette, IN, and it was there he became interested in railroad telegraphy, which led to his interest in radio and eventually television.

He attended Purdue University in 1921, dropped out to take radio engineering on a commercial basis, but returned to college to get a degree in 1927 at Andrews University near Benton Harbor. He also graduated from the National Radio Institute in Washington, did graduate work at the University of Michigan and extension work at the University of Wisconsin. He received an honorary LL.D. from Western Michigan University and from Lawrence Institute of Technology.

He is the recipient of numerous awards for his contributions to baseball and the broadcasting industries. Among his most prestigious awards were the Golden Mike Award in January, 1981 and the August A. Busch, Jr. Award for meritorious service to baseball in December, 1981.

He has been a member of baseball's Executive Council, highest level policy-making unit, serving on two occasions, 1961-65 and 1974-81.

Fetzer built a number of broadcast properties during the 1920s, then in 1930 set up his base of operations at Kalamazoo, where it has remained. His radio-television properties include outlets in Michigan, Nebraska and Iowa. He has holdings in a number of other fields.



THOMAS S. MONAGHAN

Thomas S. Monaghan realized a lifelong dream on Oct 10, 1983, when it was announced he had purchased the Tigers.

A self-made businessman whose passion has been the Tigers since childhood, Monaghan became sole owner of the club in the same fashion as John E. Fetzer, from whom he made the purchase.

"I never wanted to own the Yankees, Angels, Dodgers or any other major league club," Monaghan said after the sale was announced. "I wanted the Tigers."

Only 48-years-old, Monaghan has proven he is a determined young businessman who knows how to accomplish what he sets out for. Under conditions of the sale, until at least through 1985, Monaghan serves on the three-man board of directors as vice-chairman. Fetzer serves as chairman of the board, with President and Chief Executive Officer Jim Campbell serving as the other member.

Monaghan is founder, chairman of the board and president of Domino's Pizza, Inc., the world's largest pizza delivery company and second largest pizza chain in the country.

Born in Ann Arbor, MI, March 25, 1937, Monaghan was raised in an orphanage and foster homes and attended Catholic schools in Traverse City. He entered a Grand Rapids seminary before graduating from an Ann Arbor high school in 1955. As a teenager, he worked as a laborer on several Northern Michigan farms.

Monaghan attended Ferris State College before enlisting in the Marine Corps in 1956. Receiving his honorable discharge in 1959, he returned to Ann Arbor, enrolled at the University of Michigan and worked three part-time jobs to support himself.

Monaghan's affiliation with the pizza business began in 1960 when he and his brother, James, borrowed $500 and opened a small store—Dominick's Pizza—in Ypsilanti.

Eight months later, he purchased his brother's share of the business and formed another partnership. He then began operating stores in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Mt. Pleasant.

While making his first delivery in Mt. Pleasant, Monaghan met his future wife, Marjorie. They married in 1962 and now reside in Ann Arbor with their four daughters Mary, Susan, Margaret and Barbara.

After dissolving his partnership in 1965, Monaghan named his new business Domino's Pizza, Inc. By 1973, he had more than 60 Domino's Pizza stores in operation. Now there are approximately 2,000.

Monaghan pioneered several innovations which have became common throughout the pizza industry. They include a stiff corrugated box and the hot box oven which keeps pizza warm while en route to the customer.

Monaghan's community affiliations include membership in the Knights of Columbus and the Detroit, Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Chambers of Commerce.

Monaghan is a member of the University of Michigan Presidents Club, the Ann Arbor Presidents' Association and the Young Presidents' Organization.

A member of the International Franchise Association, Monaghan also is a trustee of the Michigan Hospitality Industry Political Action Committee. He is a director of the Michigan National Bank in Ann Arbor, and is a director of Gelman Sciences, Inc., Ann Arbor.

In addition, Monaghan serves on the board of directors for Cleary College, Ypsilanti; WTVS-Channel 56, Detroit; Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital; and the National Restaurant Association. Monaghan has been listed in Who's Who in Michigan and the Outstanding Americans Listing.

Monaghan holds two honorary doctorate degrees. Cleary College, in 1982, and Madonna College, in 1983, awarded him honorary Doctor of Philosophy degrees.

JAMES A. CAMPBELL

Jim Campbell has devoted his entire working career to the Tigers, rising from business manager of a Class D farm club in 1949 to president and chief executive officer of the Tigers in 1983.

In his present position, Campbell also is a member of the Tigers' three-man board of directors with John E. Fetzer and Tom Monaghan.

After rising through the Tiger system, Campbell became Tiger general manager at the end of the 1962 season, a position he held until October, 1983.

Campbell joined the Tiger organization in December, 1949, soon after graduation from Ohio State University. His first position, at the age of 25, was business manager at Thomasville, GA.

Campbell progressed through the system and was called to the Tigers in October, 1952, to become business manager of the farm department.

Campbell worked his way through the system and was named vice-president on Feb 1, 1959—four days before his 35th birthday. He later became general manager and in August 1978, Campbell was named president and general manager.

One of Campbell's early achievements was construction and development of Tigertown, the rookie training base at Lakeland, FL, which has been in use since 1953. He also was instrumental in developing the Marchant Stadium facilities now used by the Tigers in spring training.

Highlights in Campbell's career were the 1968, 1972 and 1984 championship Tiger teams. The 1968 club defeated St. Louis in the World Series, earning Campbell Executive of the Year honors. The 1984 team matched that acheivement and he finished second in the ballotting. The 1972 Tigers came within one game of making the World Series.

Campbell was born Feb 5, 1924 at Huron, OH, and attended high school there. At Ohio State, he was an outfielder on the Buckeyes varsity. Between high school and college, he spent four years (1943-46) in the Navy air corps.

TIGERS IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

Detroit was member of National League from 1881 through 1888; dropped out of majors until 1901, to return as charter member of American League.

Tigers of 1887 won National League pennant by 3½ games, engaged St. Louis champions of American Association, in 15-game post-season series which was forerunner of World Series. Detroit won 10 of 15 games in cross-country tour.

TIGER STADIUM FACTS

A renovation of Tiger Stadium was started in November, 1977 after the historic plant was sold to the City of Detroit for $1 and leased back to the Tigers for 30 years with a 30-year renewal option.

Installation of all modern plastic seats was completed before Opening Day, 1980. The $2 million electronic scoreboard, with message capabilities, is in its seventh season, as are the modern broadcast facilities. External renovation of Tiger Stadium was completed in 1983.

Two improvments, financed by the Tigers before the sale of the stadium, were 1977 installation of a $500,000 multi-vapor field lighting system and construction of a $600,000 pressbox to replace one destroyed by fire Feb 1, 1977.

Seating capacity (subject to final adjustments) is projected at 52,806 with 11,732 box seats, 23,606 reserved 6,269 general admission and 11,199 bleachers.

Baseball has been played on the site of Tiger Stadium since 1900, a year before the American League was born with Detroit as a charter member. Known as Bennett Park at that time, it became Navin Field in 1912, Briggs Stadium in 1938 and Tiger Stadium Jan 1, 1961.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE—A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent...the meetings are conducted by conference phone. . . Selection of free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (early June) and Winter (early January).

There are two phases to each draft meeting.

(1) Regular Phase—Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed junior year or become 21 years of age. . . Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase—Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiaton right expired (except those draftees who had enrolld in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age—now drafted in Regular Phase) . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the express written consent of that player . . . The order of selection is by lot with the 26 major league clubs divided into two 13 team groups with the groups alternating having first selections in respective drafts.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressd far enought to be an official game (i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) (Rule 4.10).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play . . . EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED GAME in each of the following situations: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in the American League Regulation 4.12 . . .

Any LEGAL game called due to weather with the score TIED is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

TIGERS ON THE AIR

Be it on radio or television, Tiger fans are used to the best with Hall of Famers and broadcast award winners filling the teams behind the microphones.

Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell and multi-award winner Paul Carey make up the familiar pair that has fed the Tiger radio network since 1973. Station WJR (760) has served as flagship since 1964 and currently heads a network around the state.

Harwell's broadcast background began in 1940 and he has been on the major league scene since 1948, describing the action for the Brooklyn Dodgers, New York Giants and Baltimore Orioles before coming to the Tigers in 1960. In 1981, Harwell received his highest broadcasting honor when he was given the Ford Frick Award which hangs proudly in Cooperstown.

Carey has won numerous broadcasting awards during his professional career that goes back to 1949. He is best known for his resonant tone and friendly manner.

The Tiger TV team boasts a pair of Hall of Fame players—George Kell, who was elected in 1983, and Al Kaline who was elected in 1980. The two have distinctive styles and keen insights into the game which give their audience that little extra edge.

Kell was an American League infield star 14 years with the Tigers and four other teams and was the 1949 batting champion. He broke in broadcasting with a pre-game show on the Tiger network in 1958, then moved into the booth in 1959 doing play-by-play every year since, except 1964.

Kaline, all-time Tiger great, began his broadcasting career in 1976 doing a limited number of games in the second year of his retirement. He became a full-time telecaster in 1977.

The Tiger flagship TV station is WDIV, (Channel 4) which also feeds an outstate network. WDIV has been the Tiger flagship since 1975 although when known as WWDT-TV it telecast the first Tiger gave in 1947.

In addition, the Tigers televise 80 games to 200 cable systems in counties throughout Michigan, Ohio and Indiana through Pro Am Sports System.

STADIUM CONCESSIONS

Concession sales at Tiger Stadium are handled by Bismarck Food Service, Inc., under the direction of Bob Sherman, Director of Concession Operations. For further information: BISMARCK FOOD SERVICE, INC., 17117 W. Nine Mile Rd., Suite 1004, Southfield, MI 48075, (313) 559-4480.

CLEARING THE ROOF

Since Tiger Stadium was rebuilt along its present lines in 1938, 19 home runs have been hit over the roof and out of the stadium. Seventeen have gone over the rightfield roof and two over the more-distant leftfield roof.

The first over-the-roof homer was delivered by Ted Williams during his rookie season in the American League.

The most recent clout was by Ruppert Jones, June 24, 1984.

A number of other blows would have cleared the roof if the ball had not hit one of the light stadards and bounced back to the playing field. Most notable in that category was hit by Reggie Jackson during the 1971 All-Star Game (July 13). It is estimated the ball would have traveled more than 600 feet if it had not hit the transformer housing on the light tower on the roof above the 370-foot mark.

The 1969 roof-clearing homer credited to Jim Northrup bounced back on the field—but only after clearing the top of the roof before striking an obstruction on the other side.

Fans recall a number of long home runs hit out of the stadium before it was remodeled into a complete double-decker. The most historic of these was the 700th home run of Babe Ruth's career on July 13, 1934—a blow which cleared the rightfield wall and rolled several hundred feet down a street leading to the stadium. Even longer was a Ruthian blast of June 8, 1926 which also cleared the wall and came to rest nearly two blocks down Plum Street. The ball was retrieved some 800-850 feet from home plate by a youngster who received a $20 bill (borrowed from a teammate) for returning it to the Bambino.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Since 1900, major league batters have hit single-double-triple-homer in a game 161 times—83 in the American League and 78 in the National League.

Seven Tigers have hit for the cycle (see table below). The last was Hoot Evers, Sept 7, 1950 in a 10-inning tie with Cleveland at Briggs Stadium.

Fans at Detroit have seen 10 players hit for the cycle, five Tigers and five opponents (see table below).

Four players hit for the cycle in 1984. Baltimore's Cal Ripken did it May 6 at Texas; Carlton Fisk of the White Sox turned the trick May 16 vs. Kansas City; Boston's Dwight Evans joined the list June 28 vs. Seattle. Willie McGee of St. Louis did it in the N.L. June 23 at Chicago.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees set the major league record for most times hitting for the cycle with the third of his career at Navin Field July 26, 1928. The Cubs' Babe Herman tied the record in 1933.

FIVE 100-GAME WINNERS

Five Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season—and two of them failed to win pennants. Under Sparky Anderson, the 1984 Tigers set a club record of 104 regular season wins. The Tigers swept three games in the Playoffs and four of five games in the World Series. Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished 2½ games behind the Red Sox and Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) was eight lengths behind the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk. The 1934 Bengals (101-53), managed by Mickey Cochrane won a pennant but lost the World Series to the Cardinals. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way by defeating St. Louis for the World Championship.

GATES BROWN PINCH HIT KING

Gates Brown broke into the major leagues with a pinch hit home run on his first trip to the plate and when he retired as an active player 13 years later, he was the premier pinch hitter in American League history.

Brown's initial shot off Bob Heffner at Fenway Park, June 19, 1963, was the first of 16 pinch homers and 107 pinch hits during his career.

The seventh player in history to clear the fence as a pinch hitter in his major league debut, Brown became the 15th to homer in consecutive pinch-hitting appearances when he belted four-baggers on Aug 9-11, 1968.

TIGERS vs. EAST DIVISION IN 1984

BALTIMORE: The Orioles were one of two teams in win the season series from the Tigers in 1984 (7 games to 6). The past-World Champions and present World Champions played opposite brands of baseball last year. The Orioles won many low-scoring games, limiting the Tigers to one run or less seven times. Of those seven occasions, six were Baltimore victories. The exception came on September 5 at Tiger Stadium when Juan Berenguer and Willie Hernandez limited the O's to 3 hits in a 1-0 masterpiece, ending a skid in which the Tigers lost 6 of the previous 7 games. By comparison, the Tigers enjoyed lusty batting support. They won by 14-2, 9-2, 10-4 and 8-0 scores, the latter two games coming in a doubleheader at Memorial Stadium June 10.

BOSTON: The Red Sox unleashed a batting barrage on the Tigers in a 5-game series at Fenway in August. But also shut out the Tigers twice, in May and August. Boston was the other team to win the season series from the Tigers (7 games to 6). Although the Sox got in their licks (winning 10-2, 12-7 and 8-0), the Tigers didn't back down (winning 13-9, 11-2, 9-1 and 9-7). The "Fenway jinx" proved to be completely burried, as the teams split 6 games there this year. The Tigers are now 8-5 at Boston the last two seasons. The Red Sox were the first team to defeat the Tigers in consecutive games in 1984 (May 2 and 3):

CLEVELAND: The Tigers won the series (9 games to 4), but on April 27 it took 19 innings and 5:44 to settle the issue, an 8-4 Indian decision. It was the longest game for any Tiger team in terms of innings and time since 1962 when the Yankees beat the Tigers 9-7 in a 22-inning, 7 hour ballgame. The Tigers won 5 of the 6 games played at Municipal Stadium. On May 6 the Tigers trailed Bert Blyleven 5-0 after the 6th inning. But they scored 4 times in the 8th, tied it in the 9th and won it on Lou Whitaker's single in the 12th. Dan Petry won another interesting game, holding the Indians to one hit over 8 innings. George Vukovich doubled with 2 outs in the 8th inning on April 29 to spoil Petry's bid to join Jack Morris in the no-hit circle in 1984.

MILWAUKEE: The Tigers had more success against the Brewers (winning 11, losing 2) than against any other American League rival. They were 6-1 at home, dropping the first game here 4-3. Juan Berenguer Pitched his second major league shutout, winning 6-0 at County Stadium June 16. His other whitewash came at Milwaukee in 1983. However, no win was more satisfying than rookie Randy O'Neal's 3-0 shutout on September 18. With Willie Hernandez finishing up, the victory gave the Tigers the AL East Division title. O'Neal beat the Brewers twice and rookie Roger Mason won his first major league game against Milwaukee September 17.

NEW YORK: Baseball's hottest team at the end of the season, the Yankees, and the best team all season long, the Tigers, were evenly matched in 1984. The Tigers won the series (7 games to 6), but 7 games were decided by 2 runs or less and 3 went into extra-innings. The Tigers won all three of them, on home runs. Howard Johnson hit a 3-run shot in the 12th on June 20; Lance Parrish's 2-run homer won it in the 10th at New York June 26 and still at Yankee Stadium, Lou Whitaker belted a 2-run home run on September 28 in the 12th to make the Tigers winners.

TORONTO: Although the Tigers beat the Blue Jays by 15 games in the standings and won the head-to-head competition (8 games to 5), it wasn't until a 3-game sweep at Toronto in early September that anyone conceded. Twice Dave Bergman hit home runs in the 10th inning to whip Toronto, here on June 4 in a memorable battle with Pitcher Roy Lee Jackson, and at Exhibition Stadium September 7 off Ron Musselman. Each clout was a 3-run home run. The Tigers lost to Jim Clancy twice, but only Dave Stieb was able to throw a complete game, in a losing effort to Milt Wilcox, 2-1. John Grubb had 2 homers in a game at Toronto September 8 and added another the next day.

TIGERS vs. WEST DIVISION IN 1984

CALIFORNIA: The Tigers and Angels hooked up in a number of eventful games last year with the Tigers winning 8, losing 4. The first meeting, May 11, the Tigers won 8-2 to push their record to 26-4, a major league best after 30 games. The next day, on national television, Reggie Jackson homered over the rightfield roof off Juan Berenguer in the Angels' 4-2 victory. Shortly less than two weeks later, the Tigers swept three games at Anaheim The final triumph, May 24, was a 5-1 complete game effort from Jack Morris. The Tigers were then 35-5, an unprecedented start. It also was their 17th consecutive road victory, which tied the 1916 New York Giants' major league record. The 51,203 watching Morris win another 5-1 game on August 25 was the largest crowd ever to see the Tigers and Angels play in Anaheim.

CHICAGO: Ending three seasons of frustration, the Tigers won the series (8 games to 4) to end a period in which they lost 20 of 30 games to the White Sox. But 1984 was different, right from the very beginning. The Tigers spoiled Chicago's Home Opener 3-2, on April 6. The next day Jack Morris entertained America via national television with a no-hitter, winning 4-0. The sweep was complete when the Tigers ruined Tom Seaver's AL debut, 7-3. The Tigers swept 3 games at Tiger Stadium the following week, but were swept at Comiskey in early July. The only highlight of that series was an over-the-roof shot by Ruppert Jones July 3. Back home, the Tigers won 2 of 3 including a gutty complete game victory from Glenn Abbott, winning 7-1 on July 16.

KANSAS CITY: The season series was close (the Tigers won 7, lost 5), but neither side did well at home. The Tigers were just 1-5 at Tiger Stadium, but they became the first team ever to win every game in a series at Royals Stadium (6-0). Kansas City ended the Tigers' season-opening 9-game winning streak, 5-2 on April 10. The winning pitcher was Bret Saberhagen. He was to beat the Tigers three times, matching Baltimore's Mike Flanagan as the only 3-game winners vs. the Tigers in 1984. One of the bigger wins for the Tigers came on May 8. Trailing 2-1 at KC, with Dan Quisenberry pitching, the Tigers came to bat in the 7th inning. They loaded the bases, but Alan Trammell promptly cleared the sacks with the first Grand Slam ever tagged off Quisenberry. The The Royals countered in early August with a 4-game sweep at Detroit. It matched the Tigers' longest losing streak of the season and cluminated with Willie Hernandez's first defeat of the year. But the Tigers righted themselves on the road August 10-11-12 with a trio of triumphs.

MINNESOTA: Although the Tigers won the series (9 games to 3) for the 4th consecutive season, the 1984 Twins were much harder to beat. The Tigers did win the first two games to start the year, April 3 (8-1) and April 5 (7-3), but of their next six wins over Minnesota, all were by 1 or 2 run margins and two games went extra innings. The Twins, on the same hand, won two close games against the Tigers, then routed the World Champions 9-0 July 1. Comebacks were the Tigers' specialty vs. Minnesota. Eight of the Tigers' nine wins resulted from rallies to wrestle the lead away from the Twins.

OAKLAND: Winning the series (9 games to 3), the Tigers scored 84 runs in 12 games, an average of 7 runs per game. The Tigers swept all 6 games at Tiger Stadium, and on August 20-22, scored at least 11 runs in each of the three games. Despite all the high-scoring affairs (only twice did the Tigers and Athletics fail to combine for nine runs in a game), a pair of close games proved the most interesting. On May 30, the Tigers ended their first West Coast swing with a 2-1 victory on the strength of Kirk Gibson's 9th-inning home run. The A's stole a page of the Tigers' book on August 31. The Tigers lead 2-0 in the first and 4-1 in the 4th. Oakland went ahead 5-4 after 4 innings, but the Tigers took the lead, 6-5, in the 9th. Oakland countered with a run in the bottom of the 9th to tie and another in the 13th to stick the Tigers with their 2nd (and last) extra inning loss.

SEATTLE: Something unusual happened to the Tigers in 1984, they ran into the Seattle Mariners, but not over. With a 35-5 record, the Tigers ventured into the Kingdome May 25-27. Seattle wasn't impressed, instead it was the Mariners who romped. They won 7-3, 9-5 and 6-1, handing the Tigers their longest losing streak to that point. Nothing prepared the Tigers for their ambush, especially after recently sweeping the M's at Tiger Stadium, including a series-ending 10-1 rout on May 16. The Tigers and Mariners split six games in their next go-around, but two of the losses were administered by Mark Langston by 4-1 and 5-1 scores. Seattle's 6-6 record represented the best the West Division could do against the soon-to-become World Champions.

They won all 6 games at Tiger Stadium, including the Home Opener, April 10, by a 5-1 score in front of 51, 238, the largest crowd ever to see the Tigers and Rangers play in Texas' 12-year history. The Tigers won the first 5 games of the series and the final 4. One of the Tigers' wins was a 7-4 decision at Arlington July 5. After losing their last 4, the Tigers trailed Charlie Hough 4-1 going into the 9th inning. With 2 men on and 2 men out, the Tigers rallied to tie the game 4-4, then won it on Kirk Gibson's 3-run before the Rangers could retire the side.

TIGERS IN POST SEASON 1984

ALCS: Tigers vs. Royals . . . The Tigers won their first pennant in 16 seasons by virtue of a 3-game sweep over Kansas City . . . The first two games were at Royals Stadium where the Tigers did not lose a game all year. The soon-to-be-crowned AL Champions vaulted to a convincing 8-1 victory in Game 1 on the strength of Jack Morris' 5 hitter over 7 innings and home runs from Larry Herndon, Alan Trammell and Lance Parrish. In Game 2, John Grubb double home two runs in the 11th inning off Dan Quisenberry to send the Tigers home with a 5-3 triumph. The Pennant-Clincher was pitched by Milt Wilcox, on the same date 14 years after he pitched Cincinnati into the 1970 World Series. The only run of the 1-0 thriller was scored on Marty Castillo's 2nd-inning force-out. Wilcox went 8 innings and allowed 2 hits, walked 2 and struck out 8.

WORLD SERIES: Tigers vs. San Diego . . . As was the case during the regular season and the ALCS, the Tigers never trailed in the series, winning 4 games to 1. Again, the series opened on the road for the Tigers, but they didn't mind. Lou Whitaker led off with a double and Alan Trammell singled him home. Larry Herndon's 2-run home run in the 5th inning was the difference as Jack Morris pitched the first complete game for any Sparky Anderson-managed team in the post-season. San Diego tied the series in Game 2 with a 5-3 decision, but the Tigers returned home to put a quick end to the season. Marty Castillo drilled a 2-run home run in the 2nd inning of Game 3 leading to a 5-2 victory. Morris again went the distance and Trammell belted a pair of homers in Game 4 enroute to a 4-2 win putting the Tigers within one victory of their destiny. In the final game, Aurelio Lopez came on the relief and stopped the Padres dead in their tracks. Lance Parrish homered off Rich Gossage in the 7th inning and Kirk Gibson blasted two homers, the 2nd giving the Tigers their final runs in an 8-4 contest.

July 8, 1941—AL 7, NL 5

GAME NO. 9 — Still regarded as the best finish in All-Star Game history, the American League defeated the National League 7-5 with a 4-run rally in the 9th inning. The difference in the game was Ted Williams' 2-out home run with Joe Gordon and Joe DiMaggio on base.

Overlooked because of Williams' heroics was Pittsburgh's Arky Vaughan. All he did was become the first player to hit two home runs in an All-Star Game, had a single and drove in four runs.

GAME NO. 18 — The All-Star Game was supposed to have been played in Philadelphia, hosted by the Phillies, but in honor of the City of Detroit's 250th anniversary, the game was shifted to Briggs Stadium. The National League, however, did most of the celebrating with an 8-3 victory.

Stan Musial of St. Louis and Bob Elliott of Milwaukee homered for the NL in the 4th inning to snap a 1-1 tie. The AL cut the lead to 4-3 on home runs by Tigers Vic Wertz and George Kell.

July 13, 1971—AL 6, NL 4

GAME NO. 42 — The air was full of electricity as the American League ended an 8-game losing streak in the Mid-Summer Classic, 6-4. An All-Star Game record-tying six home runs were belted, three by each team.

Hall-of-Fame caliber players Johnny Bench, Hank Aaron and Roberto Clemente for the Nationals and Reggie Jackson, Frank Robinson and Harmon Killebrew for the Americans put the ball into the stands-and in the case of Jackson, almost out of the park.

Jackson's home run is another highlight of the All-Star Game which will indelibly mark the 1971 game among the best in the history of the inter-league contest.

1984 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Detroit 3 games, Kansas City 0

As was the case during the entire regular season, the Tigers never trailed in the series, either in games or by score. The best the Royals could do was a 3-3 tie in the 8th through 10th innings of Game 2. The Tigers' Lou Whitaker and Alan Trammell got things going early and often. Three homers won the first game in a breeze, 8-1. John Grubb's clutch 2-run double in the 11th off Dan Quisenberry won Game 2, 5-3. It was back to Tiger Stadium for the clincher. Milt Wilcox allowed just 2 hits over 8 innings and Marty Castillo drove in the only run of the game. Willie Hernandez got the final three outs and the Tigers won 1-0 to advance to their 9th World Series. Kirk Gibson was voted MVP.

1984 WORLD SERIES

Detroit 4 games, San Diego 1

The Tigers completed their goal, one which began following the 1983 season, grew in Spring Training, matured with a 35-5 start and reached fruition in mid-October. Larry Herndon homered in Game 1 to lift the Tigers to a 3-2 victory behind the determined Jack Morris. The Padres rebounded from a early 3-0 deficit to win 5-3 in the next game on the strength of a 3-run home run by Kurt Bevacqua. Back at Tiger Stadium, the Tigers won with help from "role players" as well as the starters. Marty Castillo's 2-run home run in the 2nd inning propelled the Tigers to a 5-2 win in the third game. Alan Trammell hit a pair of home runs to back Morris' 2nd complete game, a 4-2 victory pushing the Tigers to the brink of a championship. Kirk Gibson powered the Tigers over the top with 2 home runs in Game 5 scored the winning run on Rusty Kuntz's sacrifice fly. Trammell was voted MVP.

TIGER POST-SEASON HISTORY

WORLD SERIES

1907 — Chicago 4 games, Detroit 0 (Plus 12-inn. tie)

Manager Frank Chance's National League champions by 17½-game margin were easy winners over Hughie Jennings' tired Tigers, who nosed out Philadelphia by six points in bitter finishing drive. Tiger morale suffered when Catcher Charlie Schmidt failed to hold 9th-inning third strike which would have ended first game on winning note. Darkness brought 3-3 tie in 12 innings and Cubs, who stole 18 bases during series, went on to well-deserved triumph.

1908 — Chicago 4 games, Detroit 1

History repeated as Frank Chance's hard-hitting Cubs, one-game National League winners over New York, easily handled Hughie Jennings' Tigers, last-day victors over Chicago in American League. Tigers scored 15 runs in first three games, then were shut out twice. George Mullin won Detroit's only victory in third game with help of four hits by Ty Cobb.

1909 — Pittsburgh 4 games, Detroit 3

First World Series going limit was taken by Fred Clarke's Pirates when Babe Adams, unheralded rookie, surprisingly won three decisions over Hughie Jennings' battling Tigers as two teams alternated in winning. Honus Wagner batted .333 for Pirates in duel with Ty Cobb, who hit .231 in his last World Series. Bill Abstein, Pirate first baseman, fanned 10 times and was fired as soon as series ended.

1934 — St. Louis 4 games, Detroit 3

Tigers qualified with first American League pennant in 25 years under Mickey Cochrane's aggressive management but were nosed out by Frank Frisch's Cardinals in bitter series marked by final-game row in which Commissioner Landis removed Joe Medwick from game when Detroit fans showered field with garbage following Medwick's collision with Marv Owen, Tiger third baseman. Dean brothers, Dizzy and Paul, won two games each for Cards; Charlie Gehringer hit .379 for Tigers and Pepper Martin .355 for Cards.

1935 — Detroit 4 games, Chicago 2

Tigers won first World Championship under Mickey Cochrane's direction, vanquishing Charlie Grimm's Cubs despite loss of Hank Greenberg with broken wrist in second game. Tommy Bridges scored two mound victories, Alvin Crowder and Schoolboy Rowe one each for Tigers. In final game, Cochrane scored winning run on Goose Goslin's single, throwing delirious Detroit fans into wild celebration lasting all night.

1940 — Cincinnati 4 games, Detroit 3

Bill McKechnie's Reds, easy winners in regular season, gave National League its first World Series triumph since 1934 by edging out Del Baker's Tigers, next-to-last day pennant winners in American League. Bobo Newsom won twice for Tigers, despite father's death in Cincinnati hotel following first game, but lost finale while pitching with one day's rest. Tommy Bridges won other Detroit victory, Paul Derringer and Bucky Walters took two each for Reds.

1945 — Detroit 4 games, Chicago 3

Steve O'Neill's Tiger's last-game pennant winners on grand slam homer by Hank Greenberg, just back from army, continued World Series hex over Charlie Grimm's Cubs in wartime atmosphere. Hank Borowy pitched shutout and Claude Passeau had one-hitter for Cubs but Hal Newhouser fanned 22 in series and won twice for Tigers. Greenberg had two homers, three doubles among his seven hits in series.

1968 — Detroit 4 games, St. Louis 3

After losing three of first four games, Mayo Smith's Tigers stormed back for three straight over Red Schoendienst's Cardinals as series MVP Mickey Lolich won three games. Al Kaline got chance in his first World Series after 16 years with Tigers when Smith broke up regular outfield by moving Mickey Stanley to shortstop to make room for Kaline. Denny McLain, Tigers' 31-game regular season winner, lost opening game when Bob Gibson fanned 17; split two later decisions.

1972 — Oakland 3 games, Detroit 2

Billy Martin's battling Tigers lost first two games to Dick Williams' A's at Oakland, won next two at Detroit but finally bowed by one run as American League got its first five-game championship. Tight pitching marked series with two shutouts and other three games decided by one run. Bert Campaneris, of A's, was fined and suspended at start of following season for throwing bat at Lerrin LaGrow when hit on ankle by Tiger pitcher in second game.

SPARKY—NO. 11 IS NUMBER 1

Sparky Anderson is the dean of American League managers, beating out Tony LaRussa of the Chicago White Sox by 1½ months.

Anderson was hired by the Tigers on June 12, 1979 and was in uniform two days later. La Russa made his debut on August 2 of that year.

Only Tommy Lasorda of Los Angeles and Pittsburgh's Chuck Tanner, both hired in 1977, have a longer tenure with the same club than Anderson.

TWO OF A KIND

Tiger Stadium and Boston's Fenway Park are hailed as two of baseball's more picturesque ball parks. They actually have more than that in common, having opened its doors on the same day, April 20, 1912. On that date, the Tigers beat Cleveland 6-5 while in Boston, the Red Sox beat New York 7-6 in 11 innings.

ANDERSON, George Lee — Manager

Nickname: Sparky. Born: Bridgewater, SD 2-22-34 (51) 5-9 170 B-R T-R. (Infielder). Married: Carol Valle. Children: George Jr., Shirlee Trece, Albert William. Residence: Thousand Oaks, CA.

Sparky Anderson made major league history in 1984. The dean of American League managers did so with convincing flair as he became the first manager ever to win 100 or more games with two different teams and the first ever to win a World Series in both leagues.

Along the way, Sparky also led the Tigers to 104 regular season victories—most ever by a Tiger team in its 84-year history.

Following the regular season, the Tigers swept three straight from Kansas City to give Sparky's teams 17 League Championship Series victories—most in history.

For the incredible season, Sparky was named Manager of the Year by the BBWAA.

Sparky's 15-year record of 1342-970 (.580) is unsurpassed by active managers and ranks 7th in ML history for those with at least 10 years experience. Only 17 managers in the history of the game have registered more victories than Sparky.

Anderson joined the Tigers on June 14, 1979. His contract runs through 1986. Before joining the Tigers, the two-time National League Manager of the Year (1972, 1975) directed the Cincinnati Reds to an 863-586 mark between 1970 and 1978.

Under the leadership of Anderson, the Reds won two World Championships, four National League pennants and five West Division titles. During that period, the Reds finished first or second each year except 1971 when they finished fourth.

Born Feb 22, 1934 in Bridgewater, SD, but raised in California, Anderson played in the minor leagues as an infielder for six years before playing for the Philadelphia Phillies in 1959.

That was his only season in the major leagues as a player.

Anderson then returned to the minor leagues and played four more seasons with Toronto in the International League before taking over as manager at Toronto in 1964. He then managed in the minor leagues four more years before becoming a coach for the San Diego Padres in 1969. He was added to the California Angels coaching staff that October—but within 24 hours was named manager of the Cincinnati Reds on Oct 9, 1969.

In Anderson's first year as a major league manager, the 1970 Reds won 102 games before sweeping Pittsburgh in three games in the Playoffs and then losing the World Series to Baltimore.

The 1972 Reds won another National League pennant before losing to Oakland in the World Series. In 1973, the Reds won the National League West Division but bowed to the New York Mets in the Playoffs.

The Anderson-led Reds made the most of their next two trips to the World Series by winning back-to-back championships in 1975 and 1976. The Reds defeated the Red Sox in seven games in 1975 in a memorable struggle.

They came back in 1976 to sweep the New York Yankees in four games.

Interesting nicknames? The Tigers have had a few players with famous and unusual monikers over the years. There were the famous (Schoolboy Rowe), the obscure (Firpo Marberry) and many in between. For instance; Soldier Boy Murphy and Sailor Stroud suited up for Detoit, as did Piano Legs Hickman, Baby Doll Jacobson and the Wilson trio, Mutt, Icehouse and Squanto. Other nicknames from the All-Time roster include Hooks (Dauss), Snooks (Dowd), Razor (Ledbetter), Rip (Radcliffe), Hack (Simmons), Rocky (Colavito), Muddy (Ruel), Stubby (Overmire), Tubby (Spencer), Baldy (Louden) and Slim (Love). DRAGGING IT OUT

When the Tigers played back-to-back-to-back doubleheaders in August last year, they did something no other Tiger team did in 39 years—play six games in three days. The 1984 club was swept at home by Kansas City August 5, then split at Boston on August 6 and again on August 7. The 1945 crew met Philadelphia in Briggs Stadium and split on August 19, swept the Athletics on the 20th and split the final twinbill on the 21st.

HOW THEY BECAME TIGERS

Research reveals that the nickname "Tigers" first was applied to the Detroit baseball club in 1895.

Baseball historians long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896, although George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the move which resulted in the nickname when he put his players in black-and-brown striped stocking which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

Later evidence makes it appear that an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press actually originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings.

In its early years, the team was simply called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" (a name more familiarly associated with the University of Michigan) and at times the "Creams."

The "Creams" broke into print in 1894, the year Detroit entered the Western League under the ownership of G. A. Van Derbeck, a transient from Los Angeles. A writer of the time derisively referred to his aggregation as "what is purpoted to be the cream of California baseball players"—which may account for the name.

Then on April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read: "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed: "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the work "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called them the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, the Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful search of the files disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had used "Tigers."

Thus it seems that the Detroit Free Press must get credit for originating the Tiger nickname in 1895—unless someone has other new evidence to the contrary.

Defensive replacement Dave Bergman made a pair of good plays at first base, off Tom Paciorek's line drive in the 6th inning and snaring Jerry Hairston's sharp grounder in the 8th. The biggest play was Greg Luzinski's tap back to the mound with the bases loaded and no outs in Chicago's 4th inning. Morris and Parrish turned it into a double play, then Ron Kittle struck out to end the threat. Morris struck out Kittle to end the game, tying Houston's Ken Forsch (vs. Atlanta in 1979) as the earliest no-hitter in major league history.

TIGERS SHOWER CASH ON SANDLOTTERS

In the past 21 seasons the Tigers have raised about $2 million for amateur baseball in the Michigan-Ohio-Ontario area with a series of benefit exhibition games which will continue in 1985.

In the early years of the Sandlot Benefit Exhibition Game at Tiger Stadium, different National League teams provided the opposition. More recently, Detroit and Cincinnati have squared off.

The Tigers and Reds will continue their benefit exhibitions with scheduled games at Tiger Stadium, May 6 and at Cincinnati, May 9.

These Inter-league rivals have played 20 times since 1974 with the Tigers holding a 14-5-1 series lead.

HILLER: GAME SAVER

John Hiller is the runaway Tiger leader in saves and also proved to be one of baseball's best relievers of the 1970's. Hiller's 125 career saves—all as a Tiger—are well ahead of Aurelio Lopez's second place effort of 80 on the all-time Tiger list.

HARD TO HANDLE

Two Tigers, Willie Hernandez and Aurelio Lopez were among the five American League pitchers with the lowest batting average against in 1984. Hernandez held AL hitters to a .194 average, lowest in the league. He was followed by Cleveland's Tom Waddell (.202), Bill Caudill, then with Oakland (.218) and a tie between Lopez and Toronto's Dave Stieb at .221.

TOP HEAVY

The five winningest teams, by percentage, in the major leagues over the last seven seasons all reside in the American League East:

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Baltimore Orioles	628	445	.585
New York Yankees	608	407	.564
DETROIT TIGERS	594	486	.550
Boston Red Sox	585	492	.543
Milwaukee Brewers	585	494	.542

The Los Angeles Dodgers are next on the list at 587-496, also a .542 pct. (but .0002 behind the Brewers).

GIBSON BRINGS THEM IN

Kirk Gibson set a club record with his 17 game-winning runs batted in (GWRBI) in 1984. Only two men in the major leagues had more last year, Baltimore's Eddie Murray and Gary Matthews of the Chicago Cubs each had 19. Harold Baines of the White Sox and Keith Hernandez of the Mets also had 17.

AMONG THE ELITE

The Tigers set a number of records in 1984. Included in the list are most wins at start of season (club record-9); highest winning percentage for a month (tied major league record-.900 with 18-2 mark in April); best record after 20 games (tied major league mark-18-2); best record after 30 games (major league mark-26-4); best start after 40 games (major league mark-35-5); most consecutive road victories (tied major league record-17); most wins in a season (club record-104).

CUTTING IT SHORT

The Tigers are the only major league team not to have lost five (or more) consecutive games in both 1983 and 1984. The last time the Tigers did lose more than four consecutive games was just before the All-Star Break in 1982 when they dropped 5-in-a-row between July 7-10.

SWEEP-STAKES

The Tigers and Seattle were the only American League teams to sweep an entire season series on the road in 1984. The Tigers took all six games they played at Kansas City while the Mariners skunked Texas 6 games to 0 at Arlington. In addition, the Tigers were a perfect 6-0 at home vs. Oakland and the Rangers.

THANKS A MILLION

The Tigers have drawn over one million fans at home in each of the past 20 seasons, the lone American League club to do so. Only St. Louis (22 years) and the Dodgers (40 years) have longer streaks. The Dodgers drew over one million fans in their last 13 seasons in Brooklyn and all 27 years in L.A. The Tigers set a team record of 2,704,794 in 1984. Their only other two-million year was 1968 when they drew 2,031,847.

TIGERS LEAD IN TRIPLE PLAYS

The Tigers are the triple play champs of Major League Baseball with 31 since 1900. The Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals lead the National League with 29 each. Next in the majors are the Boston Red Sox with 28.

The last time the Tigers turned a triple play was at Milwaukee on Aug 20, 1980 (Tom Brookens to Lou Whitaker to Richie Hebner).

The Tigers of 1908 made two triple plays (both against the Red Sox) to start their historic run of three-ply killings. The 1911 Tigers had a trio of triple plays to their credit.

Only Minnesota pulled a triple play in 1984. It was the third consecutive season the Twins had done so.

TIGERS UNDER THE LIGHTS

The first night game the Tigers ever played was June 20, 1939, when they blanked the Athletics, 5-0, at Philadelphia — one of three cities (along with Cleveland and Chicago) to launch night play in the American League that year.

The Tigers' first game under the lights at Tiger Stadium was June 15, 1948, when they again defeated the A's, 4-1. The Tigers, last of the American League's then-eight teams to install lights, scheduled only seven night games that year but soon doubled the number, then proceeded to the current level of 50-55 at home per season.

The 1984 Tigers had the best record in night games in the American League (68-43 .613 winning pct.).

In the 1939-84 period, the Tigers have played 2,981 night games (home and road), winning 1,560 for a .523 winning percentage.

SPRING TRAINING FACTS SINCE 1966

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland since 1934, first a Henley Field and since 1966 at Marchant Stadium, a mile north. The all-concrete grandstand at Marchant Stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000, and in 1972 the first night game was played there under a new $160,000 set of lights.

Adjacent ot the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers' minor-league training site since 1953. A plush, three-story, fireproof dormitory featuring air-conditioning, carpeted rooms and lounges on each floor, was added to the Tigertown complex in 1971. It houses 200 minor league players and officials.

The Marchant Stadium grandstand seats 4,075, including 450 box seats. The Tigers' record at Marchant Stadium is 153-113-1 and 867,798 fans have paid to see Grapefruit League games since it opened.

ESTABLISHING ROOTS

The Tigers have trained at Lakeland continuously since 1946, one of just three major league teams with 38 uninterrupted years at the same site (along with Cincinnati at Tampa and St. Louis at St. Petersburg). In fact, the Reds (1931) are the only big league team to have more seniority in the same city than the Tigers at Lakeland (1934)—not including the war years of 1943-44-45.

SHARE AND SHARE ALIKE

The Tigers have long regarded Lakeland as their spring home. But, few people realize the Cleveland Indians trained there well before the Tigers. The Tribe spent spring training in Lakeland from 1923-27. The Tigers came on the scene in 1934 and with the exception of the war years, 1943-44-45, have been there since.
